

THE DAILY PRESS

A WORD TO ADVERTISERS.

Our circulation is rapidly increasing, which renders the Press one of the best advertising mediums in the State. We hope our friends will send in their advertisements.

OUR AGENTS.

Wm. L. Weddell, Atty. at Law, Beckport, Ind.
J. B. Davis, Atty. at Law, Beckport, Ind.
J. B. Davis, Atty. at Law, Beckport, Ind.
J. B. Davis, Atty. at Law, Beckport, Ind.
J. B. Davis, Atty. at Law, Beckport, Ind.
J. B. Davis, Atty. at Law, Beckport, Ind.
J. B. Davis, Atty. at Law, Beckport, Ind.
J. B. Davis, Atty. at Law, Beckport, Ind.
J. B. Davis, Atty. at Law, Beckport, Ind.
J. B. Davis, Atty. at Law, Beckport, Ind.

The Press is the Official Paper of the United States for the State of Kentucky and the Southern portion of Indiana and Ohio.

For Afternoon Telegraph, River News, steamboat advertisements, etc., see fourth page.

MURDER.—A man by the name of Gottlieb Wagner was murdered in Germantown about 12 o'clock Monday night by two brothers named Peter and Martin Belner. It seems that the two brothers had an old grudge against Wagner, and sought a difficult way with him. Wagner and a party of friends were playing cards Monday evening, when the two Belners came in, and one of them rubbed out the marks by which the game was kept. Wagner rapped him over the knuckles, when a general melee occurred, during which Wagner was fatally shot under the right shoulder. He was also bruised very much about the head and face. He lived about three or four minutes after receiving the shot. The brothers Belner were members of the 4th Ky. Cavalry, and lived formerly in Germantown. An inquest was held, and a verdict rendered in accordance with the above.

The Belner brothers have been arrested, and will have a hearing before the Police Court this morning.

Wagner leaves a wife and three children.

A GOVERNMENT DETECTIVE MURDERED BY GUERRILLAS.—About a week since Dr. J. S. Jeffries, a government detective, went to Lexington from Cincinnati, and thence into Bourbon county, for the purpose of "working up" an affair of some guerrillas who were supposed to have their headquarters at the house of a lady in that vicinity. Jeffries took with him a certain rebel deserter, whose knowledge of the country and of the men with whom he was to deal was to be brought to his aid in the affair. It seems, however, that, instead of succeeding in his work, the government detective was betrayed into the hands of the guerrillas who murdered him, took from him his gold watch, diamond ring, and pin, revolver, &c., and left his body in the woods, where it was found a few days after.

RELEASED.—Five persons were released at the Provost Marshal's office yesterday. Their names and the conditions of their release are as follows: Jas. Edwards, Trimble county, deserter from Lyon's command, was released on oath of amnesty; David Webb, Oldham county, deserter from Jesse's band, oath and two months of the Ohio; H. B. Perkins, Jefferson county, arrested on suspicion of desertion, released on oath and bond of $1,000; John A. and Allen P. Miller, Hardin county, deserters from Chenoweth's regiment, oath and bond of $1,000 each.

MISSING.—John A. Finn, of Company B, of the 18th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, left Cincinnati on the 20th of November for this city, and was missing when the boat arrived here. He was about five feet six inches high, had on soldier's clothes and new boots, and had eight dollars in money and sixty cents' worth of postage stamps in his pockets. He is believed to have been drowned, and his wife, a poor woman living in Cincinnati, would be grateful for any information that would assure her of what his fate has been.

DISMISSAL.—Colonel Ed. A. Starling, of the 55th Kentucky Volunteers, and Lieutenant Colonel E. Wier, of the same regiment, have been dishonorably discharged the service of the United States, from the date of mustering in, for violation of the mustering regulations, in transferring men from one company to another, and thereby fraudulently swelling the ranks to secure an improper number into the service of the United States.

ATLANTIC FOR FEBRUARY.—Dr. Civil & Calvert's counter.

SELDOM CITIZENS' CLOTHING TO SOLDIERS.—A number of arrests were made yesterday for selling clothing to soldiers, without permits. The severe penalty for violating the order on this subject, does not seem to deter clothes from the risk of selling citizens' clothing to the soldiers without permits. David Steller, L. Ebenhauser and Jacob David, who keep clothing establishments on Market street, were arrested yesterday on charges of violating this order.

UNIVERSITY AT LOUISVILLE.—The annual commencement of this institution will take place this evening at half past seven o'clock in the hall of the University on Chestnut street. Diplomas will be given to the students who have graduated in the medical department, and an address will be delivered by Prof. Powell. The public are respectfully invited to be present on this occasion.

A fine piano is advertised for sale, low for cash.

DR. E. T. SMITH, late Assistant Surgeon in the 2nd army corps, has not been heard from by his wife, Mrs. E. T. Smith, 101 Thirty-Third street, New York, since last October, when he was quite sick with typhoid fever in this city. Information with regard to him will be received with heartfelt gratitude by Mrs. Smith, who is greatly distressed.

GROVERIES AND PRODUCE.—Griffith & Board are large dealers in the trade, as well as general commission merchants. Pleasant to deal with, and enterprising business men, they deserve all the success they are meeting with. Their card is in the Press, as is also the announcement of a lot of N. O. sugar for sale.

THE 34TH KENTUCKY.—The 34th Kentucky, which has been at Knoxville, Tennessee, for some time, has been ordered East, to join the 23d corps. It is attached to the 2d brigade, 4th division, of the 23d. Its destination, it is thought, is Savannah.

All those who have failed to pay their city taxes for 1864 will find their names in the city papers of February 2d, or in a few days thereafter.

DESCRIPTION OF THE WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' HOME.—The entertainment to be given by the ladies and gentlemen at Masonic Temple, February 6th, 7th, and 8th, will consist of a variety of tableaux, still scenes, and acting ballads. They will be accompanied by descriptive reading and music—vocal and instrumental. During the series of entertainments the following programme will be presented:

"The Evening Hymn of the Huguenots,"
"Faith"—From the Palmer Marble.
"Gems of Eastern Story."
"Comment by Night."
"Tennyson's Day Dream."
"The Silly Maid of Astoria."
"The Artist's Dream."
"The Game of Life."
"Courtship of Miles Standish."
"Inconvenience of Single Life."
"A Real Convenience."
"Against the Stream."
"Judith and Holofernes."
"Joan of Arc," and many other tableaux; some of which will be carefully copied from famous paintings.

The comic pantomime of "Blue Beard," the acting ballad of Kingsley's "Three Fishers," and by special and earnest request the "Mistake Bough" will be produced.

From Dickens will be given the "Brodie Supper Scene," and "The Buzfuz Trial." Mrs. Jarley's far-famed wax statues will also be produced.

POLICE COURT.—Tuesday, Jan. 31.—The Police Court this morning was crowded with criminals, and an unusual amount of business was transacted.

The first case called was that of James Sullivan, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct; fined $10.

Henry Hager, Joe Davis, Wm. Hontelien, Jacob Denney, and four negro women—Mary Butler, Emma Holland, Susan White and Jane Small—were all arrested at one house, charged with disorderly conduct; each of the men were required to give bail in the sum of $200 for six months, and the negroes discharged.

Mollie Smith, drunk and disorderly; security in $100 for two months' good behavior. Sarah Scott, drunk and disorderly; discharged.

Wm. Steadman and Eliza Mills, drunk and disorderly; fined $5.

Sallie Snyder, drunk and disorderly; bail in $100 for three months.

Mary Unify, drunk and disorderly; bail in $100 for two months.

J. B. Baldy, drunk and disorderly; discharged.

Margaret Underwood and Martha Patchett, two girls dressed in men's clothing; bail of each in $100 for two months.

John Parker, Jack Evans and Henry Evans, disorderly conduct and offering obscene pictures for sale; fined $5 each.

Perry W. Robinson and Wm. McGowan, suspected felons; bail for each in $500 for three months.

Ellen Fox (w. c.), stealing $10 from John Reiter; continued until to-morrow.

E. D. P. Powell, receiving stolen property, knowing it to be such; he was honorably discharged.

Subscriptions received for all of the Reviews and Magazines, by Civil & Calvert.

Oil.—We were yesterday shown a piece of rock very fragrant of oil, brought from the northern part of Meade county. We were informed by a gentleman from that region that there are unmistakable signs of oil there.

There is a well in successful operation on the Indiana side of the river, not far from where the indications of oil on the Kentucky side are so abundant. It was the opinion of all who examined the fragment of rock shown us, that it was permeated by oil.

Captain J. H. Bridgewater, of the State forces, overtook Captain Clark's guerrillas, numbering forty men, dressed in Federal uniform, five miles west of Harrodsburg, on Sunday evening, and succeeded in killing and capturing twelve. Captain B. is doing effective service against guerrilla robbers and murderers.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—The Florence were greeted by another very good house last night. Those who failed to go and see "Colleen Bawn" will miss a rare treat. The various parts are rendered in an unexceptionable manner; the play was never put on the stage here before in such admirable style. It will be repeated to-night.

BARRELS.—One hundred and ninety-five convalescents reported yesterday at Barrecks No. 1; 57 men were received from Nashville, 74 from New York, and 35 from St. Louis; 151 men were transferred to Nashville, 111 to Annapolis, 4 to New York, 35 to Lexington, 20 to Cairo, 9 to Washington, and a number to other points. A number of deserters were received and sent off.

PETROLEUM.—The fact that those shrewd oil dealers Wm. Skene & Co., are interested in the "Breckinridge Company," is sufficient to command confidence and sales of the stock. Their notice is published this morning.

MISS MARIA H. SMITH is the author of "The Union Banner Quickstep." D. P. Fausch publishes it, and some brilliant variations on the popular air, "O! I wish this war was over."

We understand that the notorious Dick Taylor, of Anderson county, and one of his men were killed on Saturday afternoon, about eight miles from Frankfort Taylor, with four of his men, were lying in wait to attack and rob the Danville and Frankfort stage, when Lieutenant Moore, of the 19th Kentucky, and five of his men, came upon them unexpectedly, and killed them both.

A citizen was knocked down and robbed on Market street, between Preston and Jackson, night before last. We did not learn his name.

Over a thousand clothing permits were issued at the Provost Marshal's Office during the month of January.

RETURNED.—Major-General Burbridge returned to Lexington yesterday, from Washington City.

WANTED.—An active, intelligent boy, for Civil & Calvert.

BY TELEGRAPH.

A Formidable Rebel Peace Commission.

A. H. Stephens and R. M. T. Hunter en route to Washington.

Secretary Fessenden's instruction to Jay, Cooke & Co.

The Facts in the Recent Peace Negotiations Called For.

The Constitutional Amendment Adopted; Yeas 119, Nays 56.

Passage of the Retaliatory Resolutions.

Rebel Peace Commissioners en route to Washington.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 31.—It was correctly reported here last night, and is reported this morning, that peace commissioners are now on the way to Washington. According to the rumor, they are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

SECOND DISPATCH.
BALTIMORE, Jan. 31.—Col. Taylor, of the Second Maryland regiment, who arrived here this morning, says that on Sunday Alexander H. Stephens, R. M. T. Hunter, and others reached this city, and requested to come within our lines at Fort Hill, but were refused, and were waiting permission from General Grant, who was absent at the time. I think the commissioners are now on the way to Washington. They are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 31.—A special dispatch, received from Washington, states that the peace commissioners are now on the way to Washington. They are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 31.—The American this afternoon publishes the following dispatch: The report has been current on the streets since the 10th inst., that the peace commissioners are now on the way to Washington. They are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The American this afternoon publishes the following dispatch: The report has been current on the streets since the 10th inst., that the peace commissioners are now on the way to Washington. They are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The editors of the country who have control of the patent process for making printing paper from corn husks, having been overwhelmed with letters of inquiry, give notice that they will immediately publish a list of information. They desire to receive positive answers from every State, county, and town in the United States for supplying dry and sound husks for the manufacture of printing paper.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The American this afternoon publishes the following dispatch: The report has been current on the streets since the 10th inst., that the peace commissioners are now on the way to Washington. They are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The editors of the country who have control of the patent process for making printing paper from corn husks, having been overwhelmed with letters of inquiry, give notice that they will immediately publish a list of information. They desire to receive positive answers from every State, county, and town in the United States for supplying dry and sound husks for the manufacture of printing paper.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The American this afternoon publishes the following dispatch: The report has been current on the streets since the 10th inst., that the peace commissioners are now on the way to Washington. They are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The editors of the country who have control of the patent process for making printing paper from corn husks, having been overwhelmed with letters of inquiry, give notice that they will immediately publish a list of information. They desire to receive positive answers from every State, county, and town in the United States for supplying dry and sound husks for the manufacture of printing paper.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The American this afternoon publishes the following dispatch: The report has been current on the streets since the 10th inst., that the peace commissioners are now on the way to Washington. They are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The editors of the country who have control of the patent process for making printing paper from corn husks, having been overwhelmed with letters of inquiry, give notice that they will immediately publish a list of information. They desire to receive positive answers from every State, county, and town in the United States for supplying dry and sound husks for the manufacture of printing paper.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The American this afternoon publishes the following dispatch: The report has been current on the streets since the 10th inst., that the peace commissioners are now on the way to Washington. They are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The editors of the country who have control of the patent process for making printing paper from corn husks, having been overwhelmed with letters of inquiry, give notice that they will immediately publish a list of information. They desire to receive positive answers from every State, county, and town in the United States for supplying dry and sound husks for the manufacture of printing paper.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The American this afternoon publishes the following dispatch: The report has been current on the streets since the 10th inst., that the peace commissioners are now on the way to Washington. They are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The editors of the country who have control of the patent process for making printing paper from corn husks, having been overwhelmed with letters of inquiry, give notice that they will immediately publish a list of information. They desire to receive positive answers from every State, county, and town in the United States for supplying dry and sound husks for the manufacture of printing paper.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The American this afternoon publishes the following dispatch: The report has been current on the streets since the 10th inst., that the peace commissioners are now on the way to Washington. They are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The editors of the country who have control of the patent process for making printing paper from corn husks, having been overwhelmed with letters of inquiry, give notice that they will immediately publish a list of information. They desire to receive positive answers from every State, county, and town in the United States for supplying dry and sound husks for the manufacture of printing paper.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The American this afternoon publishes the following dispatch: The report has been current on the streets since the 10th inst., that the peace commissioners are now on the way to Washington. They are expected to arrive at Annapolis.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The editors of the country who have control of the patent process for making printing paper from corn husks, having been overwhelmed with letters of inquiry, give notice that they will immediately publish a list of information. They desire to receive positive answers from every State, county, and town in the United States for supplying dry and sound husks for the manufacture of printing paper.

Congressional.

Mr. Wood, of New York, asked leave to introduce the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is the duty of the President to maintain the integrity of the American Union as formed by the fathers of the Republic, and in no event and under no circumstances to accept negotiations which shall admit of the recognition of the existence of any other Federal or Confederate Government within the territory of the United States.

Mr. Farnsworth, of Illinois, objected to the resolution.

Mr. Wood gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The Speaker announced the committee to count the vote for President and Vice President in February 1865.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

Mr. Klatsch, of New York, gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

Mr. Klatsch, of New York, gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

Mr. Klatsch, of New York, gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

Mr. Klatsch, of New York, gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

Mr. Klatsch, of New York, gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

Mr. Klatsch, of New York, gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

Mr. Klatsch, of New York, gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

Mr. Klatsch, of New York, gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

Mr. Klatsch, of New York, gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

Mr. Klatsch, of New York, gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

Mr. Klatsch, of New York, gave notice that he would on Monday introduce a resolution to the effect that the President should be authorized to suspend the rules to introduce the resolution.

The House resumed the consideration of the anti-slavery amendment.

COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE UNION PRESS, FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 31, 1865.

The market was still very dull today, with no transactions of moment transpiring in any department, and no change in the prices of the various commodities.

Mr. Henderson offered an amendment advising the appointment of Commissioners of Prisoners to look after the condition of prisoners in the future. The yeas and nays were called for, and the amendment was adopted. The resolution as amended was then passed.

Gold.
New York, Jan. 31.—Gold at Callaghan's 207½, and after call 207.

SPECIAL TO WESTERN PRESS

February 1-2 A. M.

[Owing to an accident to our double cylinder press, we are under the necessity of closing our forms one hour sooner than usual, as we are compelled to work our large edition on a single cylinder press. This will account for the 2 A. M. dispatches not appearing this morning.]

New York Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 31.—Railroad stock led today on call but there was a great falling off in business. Government bonds were in increased demand for old 5½ percent foreign bonds. State bonds and most of the other securities were in demand. The stock market was generally depressed.

News Items from New York Papers.
The Times' Paris letter says the accession of President Grant to the office of President of the United States has been a great relief to the Mexican revolution of Winter 1864. The late successes of the Federal army have modified their tone. They all show that they desire Mr. Grant to remain in office to carry out his policy of non-interference.

The Times' Washington special says the War and Marine Comptroller have received the report of the sub-committee on the tax bill. They have not materially altered the schedule of the old bill, simply perfecting it in a few details. The committee has reported the bill to the Senate.

In regard to the tax on crude petroleum, they have not changed the latter, and imposed a slight tax on refined petroleum. The House passed the bill on Monday.

The Herald's Washington special says it is believed the Senate will not adopt the amendment to the Finance Committee's fixing duty on paper.

The Richmond Enquirer complains that the soldiers are not paid promptly, while the President, the cabinet, and Congress draw their pay as fast as it is due. It says a just claim on the country should be the soldiers' pay.

Paragraphs from Rebel Paper.
New York, Jan. 31.—The Richmond Sentinel says that the army of the Confederate States has increased greatly of late. The Examiner thinks the danger to the confederacy is at an end, and thinks the army will be able to do their worst.

The Mobile Argus publishes a letter denying the report of the death of Gen. Price. The writer obtained the facts from a person who had been in the army of the Confederate States, and reports all well at that time.

A bill limiting exemptions passed the rebel House. A bill to prohibit gold speculation in the rebel States was also passed.

A Lynchburg letter says: Mosley will be in the saddle again by the last of February, his wife being nearly healed.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 28th says: It was a matter of pleasure to the rebels yesterday that the President and Vice President had been engaged in a long consultation on the subject of the rebellion.

The Mobile Argus publishes a letter denying the report of the death of Gen. Price. The writer obtained the facts from a person who had been in the army of the Confederate States, and reports all well at that time.

A bill limiting exemptions passed the rebel House. A bill to prohibit gold speculation in the rebel States was also passed.

A Lynchburg letter says: Mosley will be in the saddle again by the last of February, his wife being nearly healed.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 28th says: It was a matter of pleasure to the rebels yesterday that the President and Vice President had been engaged in a long consultation on the subject of the rebellion.

The Mobile Argus publishes a letter denying the report of the death of Gen. Price. The writer obtained the facts from a person who had been in the army of the Confederate States, and reports all well at that time.

A bill limiting exemptions passed the rebel House. A bill to prohibit gold speculation in the rebel States was also passed.

A Lynchburg letter says: Mosley will be in the saddle again by the last of February, his wife being nearly healed.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 28th says: It was a matter of pleasure to the rebels yesterday that the President and Vice President had been engaged in a long consultation on the subject of the rebellion.

The Mobile Argus publishes a letter denying the report of the death of Gen. Price. The writer obtained the facts from a person who had been in the army of the Confederate States, and reports all well at that time.

A bill limiting exemptions passed the rebel House. A bill to prohibit gold speculation in the rebel States was also passed.

A Lynchburg letter says: Mosley will be in the saddle again by the last of February, his wife being nearly healed.

COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE UNION PRESS, FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 31, 1865.

The market was still very dull today, with no transactions of moment transpiring in any department, and no change in the prices of the various commodities.

Mr. Henderson offered an amendment advising the appointment of Commissioners of Prisoners to look after the condition of prisoners in the future. The yeas and nays were called for, and the amendment was adopted. The resolution as amended was then passed.

Gold.
New York, Jan. 31.—Gold at Callaghan's 207½, and after call 207.

SPECIAL TO WESTERN PRESS

February 1-2 A. M.

[Owing to an accident to our double cylinder press, we are under the necessity of closing our forms one hour sooner than usual, as we are compelled to work our large edition on a single cylinder press. This will account for the 2 A. M. dispatches not appearing this morning.]

New York Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 31.—Railroad stock led today on call but there was a great falling off in business. Government bonds were in increased demand for old 5½ percent foreign bonds. State bonds and most of the other securities were in demand. The stock market was generally depressed.

News Items from New York Papers.
The Times' Paris letter says the accession of President Grant to the office of President of the United States has been a great relief to the Mexican revolution of Winter 1864. The late successes of the Federal army have modified their tone. They all show that they desire Mr. Grant to remain in office to carry out his policy of non-interference.

The Times' Washington special says the War and Marine Comptroller have received the report of the sub-committee on the tax bill. They have not materially altered the schedule of the old bill, simply perfecting it in a few details. The committee has reported the bill to the Senate.

In regard to the tax on crude petroleum, they have not changed the latter, and imposed a slight tax on refined petroleum. The House passed the bill on Monday.

The Herald's Washington special says it is believed the Senate will not adopt the amendment to the Finance Committee's fixing duty on paper.

The Richmond Enquirer complains that the soldiers are not paid promptly, while the President, the cabinet, and Congress draw their pay as fast as it is due. It says a just claim on the country should be the soldiers' pay.

Paragraphs from Rebel Paper.
New York, Jan. 31.—The Richmond Sentinel says that the army of the Confederate States has increased greatly of late. The Examiner thinks the danger to the confederacy is at an end, and thinks the army will be able to do their worst.

The Mobile Argus publishes a letter denying the report of the death of Gen. Price. The writer obtained the facts from a person who had been in the army of the Confederate States, and reports all well at that time.

A bill limiting exemptions passed the rebel House. A bill to prohibit gold speculation in the rebel States was also passed.

A Lynchburg letter says: Mosley will be in the saddle again by the last of February, his wife being nearly healed.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 28th says: It was a matter of pleasure to the rebels yesterday that the President and Vice President had been engaged in a long consultation on the subject of the rebellion.

The Mobile Argus publishes a letter denying the report of the death of Gen. Price. The writer obtained the facts from a person who had been in the army of the Confederate States, and reports all well at that time.

A bill limiting exemptions passed the rebel House. A bill to prohibit gold speculation in the rebel States was also passed.

A Lynchburg letter says: Mosley will be in the saddle again by the last of February, his wife being nearly healed.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 28th says: It was a matter of pleasure to the rebels yesterday that the President and Vice President had been engaged in a long consultation on the subject of the rebellion.

The Mobile Argus publishes a letter denying the report of the death of Gen. Price. The writer obtained the facts from a person

